INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the InnerVault tactical dating resource.

The aim of this playbook lite, is to give you an understanding of texting girls on dating apps.

This will build on the knowledge you will have already acquired from the Deni Ops YouTube channel.

I revised this guide many times and put in 100+ hours' worth of work, so the fluff is gone.

I don't need to prove to you what this stuff works.

Since our results are all on the Website and the YouTube channel.

This will be unlike anything you have ever read in the dating space due to one key aspect.

It being completely FREE.

And I can veritably guarantee that this is better than most 'gurus' paid course.

I cannot reveal all the secrets in this guide, as it would be unfair for our clients.

However, I can guarantee that through reading this you will gain some new information that will help you on your dating journey.

Since this guide is completely free, I just have one request from you.

If you found value here and in the Deni Ops channel then share it with others.

Or gatekeep if you wish, it saves us from coming up with more openers!

By the end of this guide, you should be able to:

- Analyse a girl's dating profile and draw conclusions based on that.
- Choose the correct opener based on your analysis.
- Follow the texting framework and close her.
- Understand our thought processes better.
- Get some insights on date setting.

SECTION 1:

OPENERS

OPENERS

Here is a complex list of all the openers we use here at the InnerVault.

Later in the guide I will show you how to choose which one works best for each girl.

This is a non-exhaustive list meaning that we come up with more on the fly daily.

Something else to keep in mind:

CUSTOM OPENERS WORK BEST

Think of it as a personalised reach out message, the prospect is more inclined to reply when the message is tailored towards them.

How can you do this?

Easy, by adding the girls name to the message.

Alternatively, you can riff off her profile and make up something on the spot.

However, by far the easiest method is using the openers listed below:

Table Key

Universal:	This opener can be used on any girl.
Niche:	This opener is use-case specific, only use it when it makes sense to do so. (For example: If the girl is smiling in every picture, you wouldn't use opener number 14)
Girls With 'Personality':	This is for girl who can take a joke, who aren't snowflakes. Usually, they look a little edgy or have neurodivergent picture. Don't worry I'll show you some examples in the next section.
Love Girl / Slut:	For girls who look innocent or are in la la land. And a slut is self-explanatory.

Table Of Openers

	OPENER	USE CASE
1	(Her Name)	Universal
2	Do you know what your missing in your pictures	Universal
3	I have a complaint about your profile	Universal
4	Do you know what you remind me of	Girls With 'Personality'
5	Are you thinking what I'm thinking	Lover Girl / Slut
6	I have a great idea	Universal
7	Seems like I found my gym wifey	Niche
8	Thought the angel was meant to be on top of the Christmas tree	Universal
9	You know you have one of my weaknesses	Niche
10	Your my third wife now	Universal
11	So what's my wifey doing on Tinder then	Universal
12	You missed our wedding	Universal
13	There's an error in your profile	Universal
14	You should smile more in your pictures	Niche
15	You look like my celebrity crush	Niche
16	You look like you can max out the hip thrust machine tbh	Niche
17	If we went to an art gallery everyone would stare at us	Universal
18	Are you a cardiologist cuz you look like you can fix broken hearts	Universal

What Next?

So now you know all the openers that are used today by the team.

Now what?

Now you need to figure out which girls to use what openers on.

So, in the next section I will show you how to do just that.

SECTION 2:

PROFILE REVIEW

GIRLS PROFILES

So now you have been armed with the openers.

But which one should you use on what archetype of woman?

That is what you will learn in this section.

Girl Archetypes:

- Universal (Normal Girl)
- Niche
- Girls with 'Personality'
- Lover Girl
- Slut

Keep in mind that girls can fit into multiple different archetypes.

In that situation you just need to pick out the archetype that suits her best.

DISCLAIMER:

You can use ANY opener on ANY girl they will all work out.

However, if you use the correct opener your success rate will INCREASE massively.

Think of it this way:

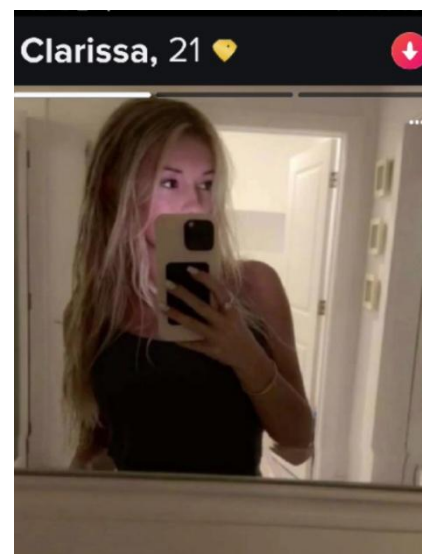

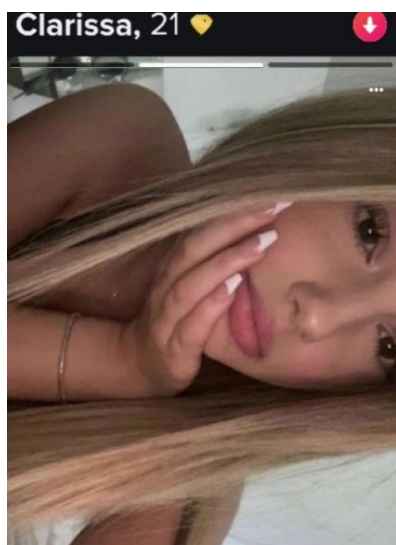

With the right opener you are on the motorway to success.

Whereas, if you use any opener on any girls, you are using country roads.

You'll get to the same destination; one way is just faster.

(And chances are if you go on country roads you'll end up in a hedge...)

PROFILE 1

InnerVault

ARCHETYPE:

Universal

REASONING:

There is nothing special about her. She is just a plain white girl with no special features or traits shown.

(The only thing you could comment on later would be her long nails)

PROFILE 2

InnerVault

ARCHETYPE:

Niche

REASONING:

Her appearance is drastically different in every picture. She does cosplay. This means anime references or gamer terms will work on her.

She also clearly goes to the gym so you can comment on that too.

(You can also mention how her the different looks represent her different personalities for example)

PROFILE 3

Lizzie 20 🍷💛

Lizzie 20 🍷💛

Lizzie 20 🍷💛

ARCHETYPE:

Girls With 'Personality'

REASONING:

This girl is clearly a bit weird; crazy tattoos, alt make up, interesting bracelets and chains, dyed hair and clothes that are out there.

All this just means that she has a wild personality. Therefore, you can say some wild autistic shit to her and she won't mind.

PROFILE 4

InnerVault

ARCHETYPE:

Lover Girl

REASONING:

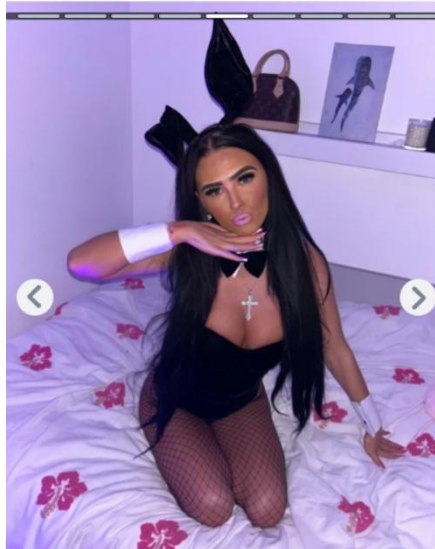

She just looks like the typical Disney girl who you can spin into a fantasy.
But in this case as she was older you would need to tone it down a little.

PROFILE 5

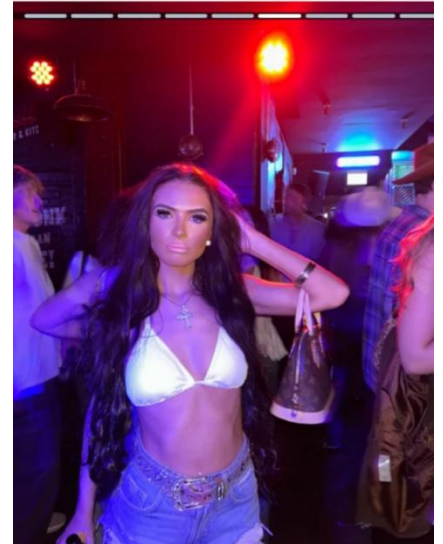

Lily 19 🍷💛

Lily 19 🍷💛

Lily 19 🍷💛

ARCHETYPE:

Slut

REASONING:

She is wearing underwear only in the first picture and she has a belly button piercing; her tits are out in every shot. She shows a lot of skin in every picture. She is wearing a slutty costume + fishnets in the second picture. She also has crazy eye lashes, fake lips and a crazy tan. She uses all these things for on purpose: attention seeking.

Conclusion:

So now you know how to identify how to fit a girl into an archetype.

As you can see it's not rocket science to identify who is who.

You will see these traits in every girl on the apps and all you need to do is match them to the correct archetype.

Now that you have all the steps this far the only thing left is to show you how to text a girl after the opener.

I will also show you the thought process you should be following from when the girl matches you to the messaging close.

SECTION 4:

TEXTING FRAMEWORK

THE PICTURES FRAMEWORK

This will look familiar to many OG Deni Ops viewers.

It is our most used and successful framework to date.

We have been using it for years and it still works to this day.

It has a great degree of customization depending on how the girl responds. Plus, it has a very nice mix of sexual flirting while still being relatively modest.

However, you may still encounter pushbacks and objections using it.

Remember. This is a framework; you can tweak it depending on the situation to achieve a better outcome.

(If you text like a robot you will get robotic results, show some humanity and creativity)

Framework Breakdown:

All frameworks are broken down into the following sections.

I will use fishing terms to simplify the concept.

OPENER:	The first message you send to the girl. AIM: • Create mystery- she needs to find out something. (this forces her to reply) • Display confidence and set up a masculine frame.
BAIT:	This builds on the Opener and adds more mystery or the mystery is resolved. You need to grab her attention- the best way of doing this is by saying something unique or custom tailored. Polarisation is king.
HOOK:	Here the Opener is resolved. She finds out what she wanted to know, adding a flirty twist works best. Now you need to keep her attention, while building on what's been said.

REEL:	Here you amp it up either through sexualising or asking some interesting questions and digging into her past.
CATCH:	Here you are at the climax of the conversation and or setting up a close.
CLOSE:	You ask for her phone number or social media.

Core Framework:

OPENER:	(Her Name)
BAIT:	Do you know what you're missing in your pictures
HOOK:	Me with my arms around you (Name)
REEL:	So arms around your waist or neck then
CATCH:	I was thinking around your waist in public to show you off and neck for my eyes only;)
CLOSE:	Let's make it happen give me your number (name)

Text Example

The first 4 lines are all explained in the framework.

"Hmm I think if you're feeling lovey diver around the waist, if you want to murder me around the neck"

Here is a common occurrence with the framework, some girls misunderstand what you mean when you suggest putting your arms around their neck. They think it's for choking in a murder / rape context, not in the kinky bedroom context.

You will need to clarify what you mean. Either if she's a slut talk about the bedroom or if she's modest, talk in a cuddling context.

"Let's do waist for our photos to be modest and neck in the bedroom for missionary;)"

We clarify the intention here giving her 2 scenarios where the hand position would be appropriate. All girls want to be seen as modest princesses in public but then fucked like a slut in private.

"What's your favourite position incase missionary ain't your thing"

This keeps it sexual while, her answer will give us more ammunition for the rest of the conversation.

"Pillow princess good thing im a expert with girls like that ever done speed bump ill make you finish quick;)"

We riff off her answer and display some sexual competence which is hot to women, they love a man who is capable in bed. Mentioning that you'll make her cum is huge since most men can't.

"Im not writing that all out fuck you"

We explain the position in great detail; this is where the sexual competence comes in handy.

"Any other kinks handcuffs rough sex name calling"

We list some other common sexual kinks to gauge her, again this all plays into conveying the image that your good in bed and will give her a good time.

"Give me your number lets sort it out"

Enough rapport has been built at this stage and it's safe to close her.

From here on it's just logistical talk, this could have been done on WhatsApp but our client wanted to call her. (Before calling a girl please text her beforehand, don't call her out of the blue...)

I thought you would find this last part funny. This girl is too awkward to talk on the phone, yet she feels free to share how exactly she likes to get her pussy rammed.

SECTION 5:

TEXTING PRINCIPLES

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF TEXTING?

We need to start here, because without having the correct mindset, it's like building a skyscraper on quicksand...

So, I'll ask you the question, what's the point of texting?

Seriously—answer that question right now. In your opinion, what is the point of texting? Nothing fancy, just a few simple words.

Some answer you may have come up with:

- Get her to like you.
- Make her chase you over text.
- Show your personality.
- Make her more interested in you.
- Build comfort and trust.

I'm going to hit you with a harsh truth here:

All of those things are GARBAGE. That is a how a weak beta male will text a woman he likes.

And if you want to get dramatically different results from the what the 99% are getting, we have to act dramatically different from how the 99% are acting.

What do we do that's different...?

Mindset Reframe

As 1% men we understand this fundamental truth:

The ONLY point of texting is to set a date. We text for logistics, nothing more, nothing less.

We text as little as possible. Why?

Because why would we give her free attention, when we get nothing out of it?

The only thing that can possibly happen is that you say something that she doesn't like, and boom, she loses interest, and you've lost out on a practically guaranteed woman that you could easily sleep with on the first date.

What are the weak men that aren't a part of this brotherhood doing?

Texting her constantly, liking her pictures, viewing her Instagram stories, following her 4 TikTok pages.

PRINCIPLE 1 | Text as Little as Possible

Why?

Remember, what are most weak men doing?

Their texting her constantly, calling her, facetimeing her, giving all this free attention.

She's bored. There's no mystery. She thinks, "Oh, he's just another beta male, that's like me for no reason".

Subconsciously she thinks: "I'm higher status than him, no thanks. Next."

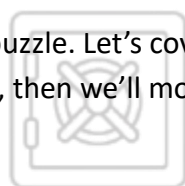

So, we use these tactics to make ourselves different, so we're the rarity. So, she HAS to chase us, because there are no other men like us.

This is just one piece of the puzzle, when you use all these tactics that I'm going to give to you, that's when we win big. All the time.

The more rare and less available something is, the more valuable it is perceived as.

So, if we text her less → your attention is now more valuable → she perceives you as higher status → she finds you more attractive.

Like I said, this is just one piece of the puzzle. Let's cover the fundamentals, so we can build a strong foundation and understanding, then we'll move into the advanced tactical strategies.

PRINCIPLE 2 | Take Your Time

Now this is a big one, and I get it, I remember back when I was a weak feminine man, I would get excited, “Oh a woman’s texting me back, I better text her back fast so she doesn’t lose interest”.

Big, big mistake on my part.

Before we get into numbers, minutes, hours, days, advanced strategies...Let me tell you why this works so well.

Think about this: when you’re texting a girl that you really like, how does it make you feel?

I know this too well: anxious, excited, always checking your phone, refreshing the page?

What about when she hasn’t texted you back after 5 minutes, 10 minutes, 1 hour, 6 hours, 1 day, 3 days? What about a week?

You start questioning yourself. Wondering what you’ve done wrong. This is where the realisation came from.

You need to create the same uncertainty you felt when a pretty girl didn’t text you back in her.

We do this by taking our time when replying.

Exactly how long should you take to respond?

The aim of this: Keep her uncertain, keep her guessing, always make her question herself.

Uncertainty is a woman’s kryptonite.

Be sporadic, be random. Don’t follow a predictable schedule i.e. You take 4 hours, then you take 30 minutes, then you take 2 days.

You have to be fearless. I understand it will scare you at first, “Oh, she might lose interest”.

No, she won’t. The only thing this is going to do is massively ramp up her interest and make her finally see you as a above her, meaning she has to chase you. It really is this easy.

My general rule of thumb: 2-4 hours MINIMUM (most of time)

If there’s a time sensitive situation, at absolute minimum, make it 5-10 minutes, but for all other circumstances, follow the 2-4 hour rule.

ADVANCED TACTIC

What I'm about to share with you is unreal. I've never heard anyone talk about this before. It's a tactic I discovered, and it works so well. The results will shock you. This is how you turn the tides in your favour. But it's probably going to scare you when you do it.

When a woman texts you (especially the ones with a lot of options), leave her on delivered.

Open her message and don't respond.

Now, once you do this, you have 2 options:

1. You can wait for HER to double text YOU = you have all the power, pursuit phase initiated (more on that later)
2. You text her back in 10-30 minutes after you open her message.

EITHER ONE is extremely powerful. Because no other man is doing this.

BEWARE: this is a very potent tool. Use sparingly and wisely. As you level up throughout this program. I'll be developing your senses to literally give you my 1000's of hours of experience. But you have to understand, you have to have experience, you have to be operating from a place of purpose, mission and strength. So, you know exactly when to use these tactics I'm giving you.

PRINCIPLE 3 | No Feminine Texts

This is a big one. One that would have saved me so much pain and rejection. Being ignored, losing out on the girls I really liked.

Why does this work so well?

Quick recap of polarity: attraction is based on polarity. Masculine vs. Feminine. This creates burning desire and fire.

So, we never send feminine texts, only masculine texts. She gets enough feminine texts from her girlfriends.

You text like a girl and wonder why the situation never goes past the platonic stage?

The Anatomy of a Masculine Text:

1. No emojis | Exceptions are: ;) or :) |
2. No long texts (only short texts)
3. 'Mysterious' + cold (never let her know where she stands)

PRINCIPLE 4 | Leveraging Uncertainty

UNCERTAINTY! Her questioning herself.

When we take our time to respond, 1 hour, 2 hours, 6 hours, 1 day...etc.

All these questions start flying around in her head, “Does he like me?” “Is he seeing other girls that are hotter than me?” “Why isn’t he texting me back?”

Psychologically sates that the human brain (especially the female brain) can’t tolerate uncertainty.

You make her anxious, and this is exactly how you make a woman chase you. And knowing this one simple step and executed on it, worked so well for me. It’s a literal game changer.

Important note:

Once I became aware of this, everything else in my life took off. When I say take your time, it doesn’t mean you’re sitting in the house, playing video games, rubbing your nuts, or brainstorming what you’re going to say next.

You’re doing masculine things. You’re levelling up, chasing your masculine purpose, spreading our movement, helping other guys. Pushing our mission forward. Stopping other men from taking their own lives. Making men strong again.

OPENER

The BEST One Word Opening Text (100% Response Rate)

Deni developed this. I still quite fondly remember when I used to text girls, years ago, and we would just talk and talk and talk, but nothing ever come of it. It was platonic, she saw me as a friend. Her response times would get slower and slower until she just stopped replying.

Let me tell you a story that I just remembered as I was putting this together:

There was this girl that I really liked, we started talking, and because she was literally just talking back at me, I thought I was in. I still remember going home every day so excited just to text her, I was so scared of losing her, and that she would lose interest in me that, I put off activities, seeing my friends, training, going out, just so I could stay in and text her.

But guess what? After me watching hours and hours of the texting tips that the game gurus had given, still I was sending her dozens of messages a day, ruining my sleep, trying to plan the conversation out days in advance, sacrificing my entire life (sports, training, family) just so I could be by my phone and text her. So, I could accomplish what?

Maybe go on a date with her, or maybe she would see me as more than a friend?

Does this sound logical to you?

This is what these beta males are doing, and this is why they get salty and upset when I talk about these tactics based on reality and human nature. The truth hurts.

A lesson my father taught me:

"The truth hurts, and if you're not ready to hear and accept the truth, then you're not ready to be a man".

Do you think that's how a real man that other women find attractive acts?

NO.

So, we keep it short, cold and mysterious:

The opening text strategy Deni developed plays into all 3 founding principles of high-status texting, I use my own laws in my everyday life, this isn't something I just teach and don't practice.

Let's talk about the exact line I use on every single girl I set a date with. It may seem simple, but it works:

JUST SAY HER NAME

This is the reaction the first time I used this message:

Me: "Katie"

Less than 2 minutes later...

Katie: "Yasssss x"

Imagine how that would feel, a girl who you really like, is responding to you firstly rapidly, and secondly sending a feminine text like that, with a kiss at the end.

I managed to get a girl I really liked on a date; it was a good result for me at the time.

It's literally just her name, why does it work so well?

1. What man is confident enough just to send a text with her name, not explaining yourself, creating mystery, in her eyes, it's a very confident first move.
2. You've created mystery, she has to know what it is.

This mystery and your confidence are what drives her to want to see you.

We have to create that burning desire, otherwise why would she want to see you?

You can't let her know, you must keep it secret and mysterious, this is how you get her on the first date: just pure mystery and burning desire to find out more. And then, we use the high-status tactics that we covered in the other playbooks to hook her heart on the date.

But remember to get her on the date, we must first set the date and get her wanting to go on it. If you can't do that, we're already fighting a losing battle.

I don't know about you, but I would much rather have a woman chasing me before the date even starts, rather than trying to make up on the date for my low-status, feminine texting. Why work harder than we must?

THE END

Congratulations you have reached the end of this guide.

I hope the knowledge you have now was worth the time it took to you to read this Playbook Lite.

Now you should have the basic understanding of how to get a girl's number on a dating app.

REMEMBER: This is just the tip of the iceberg.

There are so many concepts and ideas that I can't share with you here in this guide.

This is not a bs guru marketing tactic it's just a fact.

I can't share what our client's get on the inside for free...
